ΟΜΙΛΟΣ ΑΝΤΙΣΦΑΙΡΙΣΗΣ ΑΘΗΝΩΝ

The first cup in the history of the sport was won by the national teams of men and women in the Balkan Games held in Belgrade. The men's team consisting from Fabian Kalaitzis, Petros Tzamaloukas, Declan Christie and as an alternate Kargiotis Constantinos showed that they are the strongest squash nation in Balkans winning in the pool match the organizers Serbia 2-1 in a thrilling match with the last match of Petros Tzamaloukas vs Ivan Djorjevic with eventual winner the Greek 3-2 (11 / 5 8 / 11 6 / 11 11 / 8 12/10). In the semifinal, the Greek team ruled the Bulgarians with a score of 3-0 and won the grand final as Slovenia was big favorite ,after wins from Christie and Kalaitzis. This time the victory gave Fabian Kalaitzis who won Klemens Guttman 3-1 in one of the best games in a frenzied celebration of the Greek team.

The women's national team had earlier won the Cup also after winning Bulgaria, Serbia and Croatia. The Greek team was composed by Eliza Kargioti, Nicole Pozidis and Zeta Tzamalouka. This showed their power and had been favorites for the cup.

The organization of the next year will take place in Zagreb with the organization in 2012 to be hosted in Greece.

and Rhodes in the game...

End for the Sheraton Rhodes Cup with participants also from Athens and Crete, which exceeded thirty. Petros Tzamaloukas defeated in the final Declan Christie with a score of 16/14 11 / 8 11 / 4. In women G. Vogiatzaki defeated Katerina Platia 3 / 0. Third was ranked G. Perisinakis and the plate was won by Papadimitriou M. from Rhodes. At the players party on Saturday night many prizes were drawn and Georgina won three nights in Costa Navarino in Pylos, and Karagianis from Rhodes three nights in the Astir Palace. T-shirts of the games were distributed to participants and a big thanks to Nick Tsiros and Igor Buercher, general managers of Sheraton Rhodes for their hospitality who also offered free accommodation to participants. See you next year!

Vari Sports Club Open >>>

full of surprises

Nikos Moustroufis was the winner in the open tournament of Vari Sports Club where he defeated in the final Konstantinos Kargiotis 3 / 0.

It was a tournament marked by big surprises in the semifinals as Fabian Kalaitzis retired with injury while losing 2-0 games to Moustroufis and Kargiotis prevailed by 3 / 1 to Petros Tzamaloukas who suffered from stomach problems. The overexertion and fatigue of both the Balkan champions from last weekend eventually appeared here. Women champ after a great struggle was Eliza Kargioti who won Zeta Tzamalouka with 3 / 1. Zeta has confirmed her return to the game after the semifinal win, second in a row, vs N. Pozidis 3 / 0.

Kivotos Mykonos Cup >>> the squash Ark

Peter Tzamaloukas was the winner of the tournament held in Mykonos for the closure of the summer season and his academy that hosted in Kivotos. In the final he faced Chiotakis Logothetis and won 3 / 1 (10/12 11 / 5 11 / 7 11 / 5). In the women's final Olga Tourlomousi won Kontaroudi 3/0.

OAA Autumn Open >>> everybody was there !

Petros won, his fourth tournament win in a row...Eliza in women

In great form Petros Tzamaloukas defeated for the second consecutive time in a week, Declan Christie with 8 / 11 11 / 9 9 / 11 12/10 14/12 after an exciting game that lasted nearly 90 minutes, and won the fourth consecutive tournament. In women Eliza Kargioti won former champion Zeta Tzamalouka 11 / 5 11 / 7 11 / 9.

OAA GREEK OPEN 2010 review >>>

With great joy the Athens Lawn Tennis and Squash Club welcomes you for another year in the PSA WISPA OAA GREEK OPEN 2010 men and women to be held on 26 and 27 November with the qualification draw, and the main draw from Sunday, November 28 with end Wednesday, December 1. The tournament has a long history since 1945 with some of the legends of the sport to have played in it. It is no exaggeration to say that all the world champions of the last fifty years have played to the courts of this historic club as Mark Chaloner, Ahmed Barada, Peter Nicol, Paul Gregory, Amir Wagih, Gamal and Mohamed Awad, Abbas Kaoud, Johna Barrington, A. Safwad, Mohiboulah Khan etc. and women Sandra Wrench, M. Le Moignan etc. In this year's tournament will participate among them the Greek champions Fabian Kalaitzis, Petros Tzamaloukas, Eliza Kargioti, Zeta Tzamalouka and Nicol Pozidis. Come everyone to applaud their efforts and the efforts of all our guests athletes.
